Unless otherwise agreed between the Company and each of the Selling Shareholders, all payments under this Agreement shall be made to the Registrar by the Company (in the first instance). The Offer related expenses shall be shared by the Company and/or Selling Shareholders in the manner set out in the Offer Agreement. It is also clarified that, in the event the Registrar is unable to perform the Assignment as envisaged in this Agreement, then the Registrar shall refund all sums that may have been paid to it by the Company (by itself or on behalf of the Selling Shareholders), or directly by the Selling Shareholders, as the case may be, except for any out-of-pocket expenses. Upon receipt of notice from the Affected Party, the other Party shall be similarly excused from performance of its respective obligations hereunder during such period as performance of the Affected Party’s obligations is suspended. However, prior to exercising the option to terminate, the Parties shall need to mutually decide on the future course of action and if they fail to arrive at a mutually agreeable course of action within 10 Working days from the date on which the event of force majeure occurs, then any of the Parties shall jointly or severally be entitled to terminate this Agreement by giving 10 Working Days’ notice to the other Parties of its intention to so terminate this Agreement provided that, in such event if any or all of the Selling Shareholders propose to terminate this Agreement, the Agreement shall be terminated only with respect to such Selling Shareholder(s) and shall continue to remain valid in full force for the rest of the Parties.
